

Adverse Event Report Form

Marketing authorisation holder: Coreline Pharmaceuticals Ltd, Unit 7 Fenway Court, Bramwich

A. Administrative information

REPORT REFERENCE AER-2026-00141	DATE OF THIS REPORT 14 March 2026
TYPE OF REPORT Spontaneous	SERIOUS? No

B. Patient details

PATIENT INITIALS A.M.	AGE AT ONSET 58-year-old
SEX Female	WEIGHT 68 kg
RELEVANT MEDICAL HISTORY hypertension, type 2 diabetes

C. Reporter details

REPORTER NAME Dr Aoife Whitfield	QUALIFICATION General Practitioner
ORGANISATION Northgate Community Clinic	COUNTRY United Kingdom

D. Suspect and concomitant products

PRODUCT NAME Velmoradine	DOSE AND FREQUENCY 20 mg once daily
ROUTE OF ADMINISTRATION ORAL	BATCH / LOT NUMBER VLM-4471B
THERAPY START DATE 3 March 2026	ROLE Suspect

E. Adverse reaction

REACTION REPORTED maculopapular rash	DATE OF ONSET 12 March 2026
OUTCOME Recovering	SERIOUSNESS CRITERIA No

F. Case narrative

The patient began Velmoradine 20 mg once daily for essential hypertension on 3 March 2026. Nine days later she developed a widespread itchy maculopapular rash across the trunk and both forearms. The drug was withdrawn on 13 March and the rash began to settle within 48 hours. No corticosteroid was required. She had taken no other new medicine in the preceding month.